COMMENTS / AANMERKING:

On the second last mohair sale of the 2021 winter selling season, the top-quality clips of this offering did create a turnaround for the season. The previous 3 sales did have a downward sentiment, but this sale turned things around with a 6% increase in price on average. Although the quality played a major role, the weakening exchange rate of 6% also had a serious positive influence in Rand terms. That fact makes it dangerous to forecast what is going to happen on the last sale of the season. To speculate on the exchange rate is dangerous. However, the last sale is small and the demand for mohair is still excellent. This sentiment was endorsed on the Textile Exchange conference in Ireland the past week. So, the outlook for the last sale and the coming summer season does not look bad at all. A high-quality bale of winter kids from Gert & Pieter Jordaan from Aberdeen, carried the honor of top price of the day at R734.00/kg! This B-length, super style, 24-micron winter kid, with a clean yield of 84% deserved every cent! The last sale of the season will be offered in the Port Elizabeth Mohair Exchange on 7 December 2021. So, reports Pierre Van der Vyver, General Manager: The House of Fibre

Op die tweede laaste sybokhaar veiling van die huidige 2021 winter verkoopsseisoen, het die hoë gehalte skeersels wat aangebied was, grootliks gehelp om die afwaartse neiging van die laaste drie veilings om te keer met 'n indrukwekkende 6% styging in die gemiddelde prys. Alhoewel die kwaliteit 'n deurslaggewende rol gespeel het, het die verswakking van die Rand in wisselkoers van 6% natuurlik ook 'n groot rol gespeel. Dit maak 'n voorspelling vir die volgende veiling gevaarlik, want om met die wisselkoers te spekuleer is hoogs foutdraend! Dit gesê, moet die vooruitsigte nogtans positief bly, want die volgende veiling is aansienlik kleiner en die aanvraag bly steeds goed. Hierdie sentiment was onderstreep op die Textile Exchange kongres die afgelope week in Ierland. So, die vooruitsig vir die komende veiling en somerseisoen lyk glad nie sleg nie. Gert & Pieter Jordaan van Aberdeen het op hierdie veiling met die loue waggestap met hulle baaltjie winter klein bokkiehaar. Die B-lengte, super styl, 24 mikron baal met 'n skoonopbrengs van 84% het elke sent van die R734.00/kg behaal verdien! Die laaste veiling van die seisoen word in die Port Elizabeth Sybokhaar Beurs aangebied op 7 Desember 2021. So berig Pierre Van der Vyver, Algemene Bestuurder: The House of Fibre
